"Ground of Your Own Choosing: Winning Strategies for Finding & Creating Work," Beverly Ryle (Shank Painter Publishing, ISBN 978-1-888959-45-1, 184 pages, $14.95)

Beverly Ryle came to Cape Cod from Connecticut, where she had a career as a corporate outplacement consultant and career counselor. Her career, so to speak, is careers, and this, her first book, is a compilation of techniques and ideas for finding or creating work outside of the traditional job-search methods of resumes and networking. The unanswered question "What do I do instead," writes Ryle, "is the reason people looking for work keep doing the same things and expecting different, less disappointing results." Ryle makes the case that everything has changed and success comes from making appropriate changes. This book tells you how.
